

Judy Hart, NAGF Board Chair since May 2014, Board member since November 2010

Judy was born and educated in Brisbane, moving to Newcastle as a Pharmacist in 1986. She retired from active Pharmacy work in 2017.

Judy has a long volunteering history including as volunteer Chair of Protocol at the Brisbane Commonwealth Games in 1982 (organiser of Heads of Government venue trips, meetings and official lunches) as well as one stint as Games Mascot- Matilda the Kangaroo. Other volunteer positions have included: Hunter Volunteer Centre as interviewer then Chairman of the Board, Secretary ADFAS Newcastle, Pharmacist at Newcastle Mater Hospice, Nursing home visitor with Delta Therapy Dogs. She has also worked for Red Cross Blood Bank and Merewether Landcare.

Judy brings organisational, editorial, attention to detail and networking skills to the Board. She has a great knowledge of the not for profit sector in general, the local environment and community, and of the Newcastle Art Gallery and Foundation.